How do I know which section my craft article fits in?

Popular craft articles tend to change with the times and the current trends; the sections within the Crafts Class tries to accommodate the broad spectrum of possible craft articles. If the craft article that you wish to make not listed, ask yourself these questions:

- Does it fit into any of the sections in the list?
- If not, what are the major techniques used to make it? Place it in the class where these techniques are found. (i.e., scrapbooking would go in Section 17, Paper Craft, because there is an artistic element in laying out the pictures and using different papers in the design of the project).

Do not feel limited by the sections listed. There will always be a place within the class for every Crafts article, so do not give up trying new things and being innovative with your work!

PLAY IT SAFE! It is very important that members follow safety procedures when making crafts.

- Glue guns are HOT! The glue comes out quite fast and can burn your skin if you are not careful. Keep fingers away from hot glue, use a toothpick or craft stick to hold pieces in place until the glue sets.
- Be careful with sharp pointed items like scissors, knives or other cutting tools. Always carry and pass the scissors with the handles turned toward the other person.
- When doing hand stitching, especially quilting, use thimbles to prevent needles from stabbing your fingers.

Standards for Judging Crafts

A craft article is evaluated on the general standards listed below.

1. Craftsmanship/Workmanship (45%) – Consider the quality of the work. Does it affect the appearance and or usefulness of the article?

2. Design (25%) – Is the craft item appealing, functional and does the item compliment the materials and colors used? Is the size appropriate for the use of the item? Are the materials used, suitable for the pattern used? Is it an original design, is it innovative, is it well put together?

3. General Appearance (15%) – Does the item attract attention through its color and design? Is it neat, clean, complete (finished for use), and free of all markings? The materials, time and money spent in making the article is justified by its beauty, usefulness and durability.

4. Colour (15%) - Should look attractive together and suit the design and use of the article.
